

29th Annual Spring Nature Festival

“Reading the Season” Warriors’ Path State Park Kingsport, Tennessee Friday - Sunday April 18, 19 & 20, 2008

Delve a little deeper into nature's wonders this spring. Discover the variety of nature in your state park. Come away with a deeper understanding of the living world of springtime. Enjoy lasting memories of the scenic beauty of Warriors' Path.

This weekend you can participate in seminars taught by professionals, and walks guided by trained naturalists. Each will highlight a different area of natural history, and a different part of the park. Each walk and each seminar will be a part of a natural pathway of discovery.

- ### Schedule of Events
- #### FRIDAY, APRIL 18
- 7:00 PM ANIMAL TRACKING AND SIGNS - Our fellow creatures leave a variety of living stories. Learn to read tracks, dens, and other signs of wildlife activity. Join Ranger Marty Silver at the Recreation Building.
